

Courses that meet the statistics / research methods prerequisite for Project L/EARN:

Applicants should have completed at least one of the courses listed below (or a comparable course), by the end of the spring semester of the year they apply to Project L/EARN. Course names may vary depending on the department and college or university.

Quantitative Methods in Psychology

Research Methods in Psychology

Statistical Methods

Introduction to Social Research

Intermediate Social Research

Computer Analysis of Social Science Data

Basic Statistical Methods

Basic Statistics for Economics

Basic Statistics for Research

Introductory Statistics for Business

Introduction to Experimental Design

Application of Quantitative Methods

Statistics

Research Methods in Human Ecology

If you have taken a college-level statistics or research methods course that does not appear on the list, email plearn-info@ifh.rutgers.edu with a description of the course and the name of the textbook used. If possible, attach a copy of the syllabus listing topics covered. We will get back to you regarding whether the course satisfies the prerequisite for Project L/EARN.